

Thank You, Somerset Ward!

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to everyone who supported our campaign.

To my small but mighty campaign team and the many volunteers who knocked on doors, put up signs, made calls, and gave so generously of their time; to our donors and community supporters; and to everyone who welcomed us into their homes and shared their concerns and ideas — thank you.

While the outcome is not what we had hoped for, I am proud of what we accomplished together and grateful to everyone who believed in our campaign and helped share our vision for Somerset Ward.

To the other candidates, Dillon Anderson, Nicholas Gollé and Michael Tay, thank you for putting your names forward. It takes courage and commitment to run for public office.

To councillor Troster, thank you, Ariel for your service to Somerset Ward and for your dedication to serving our community. I wish you well as you continue your work at City Hall.

Over the past four months, we connected with thousands of residents across Somerset Ward. Your stories, questions, and hopes for our community have reinforced why responsive leadership matters.

The election results are clear - many residents are unhappy about the state of their neighbourhoods and concerned about the future of our community. I hope these voices will be heard and that Councillor Troster will work to address these concerns, listen to residents, and deliver meaningful change.

Although the campaign has come to an end, my commitment to our community has not.

I will continue to look for ways to contribute, support our neighbourhoods, and help make Somerset Ward a safer, more liveable place for everyone.

I am deeply grateful for your support, encouragement, and the time we spent working together.
